

House Resolution No.

Whereas, it is with special pleasure that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize Sarah London of St. Louis, Missouri, who will receive the St. Charles County Social Justice Alliance Social Justice Award during the organization's Annual Benefit and Awards Banquet to be held June 10, 2004, at the Stegton Banquet Center in St. Charles; and

Whereas, the Eastern Missouri Field Coordinator for AFSCME's Take Back America program, Sarah London is being honored for her grass-roots organizing in St. Charles County in support of public education; and

Whereas, Sarah London has compiled an enviable list of service to her community through the important roles she has played as a Planned Parenthood Teen, Think Tank volunteer, Jobs With Justice activist, Race for the Cure and AIDs Walk participant, and volunteer with the Coro Leadership Center and the Constitution Defense League; and

Whereas, Sarah London graduated cum laude from Northwestern University, where she established JUICE, a feminist magazine; and

Whereas, a Coro Fellow in Public Affairs, Sarah London is the proud recipient of several awards, including the Hoellen Family Scholarship for Academic Excellence; and

Whereas, Sarah London has achieved all of this and more with the love and admiration of a wonderful family whose members include her proud parents, Harland and Holly London, and her brother, Matthew London:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, unanimously join in extending our most hearty and robust congratulations to Sarah London at this proud moment of well-deserved distinction, and in wishing her only the very best of success in all her future endeavors; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Sarah London, as a mark of our esteem for her.
